No. 15 Pirates Third After First Day Of NCAA DII South Regional

Posted: May 05, 2013

LAKELAND, Fla. - The No. 15-ranked Armstrong Atlantic State University women's golf team shot a first-round 301 in their NCAA Championships debut on Sunday, sitting in third place just three strokes off the lead at the 2013 NCAA DII South Regional in Lakeland, Fla.

The Pirates trail top-ranked and defending NCAA Division II national champion Nova Southeastern (298) and No. 6 Florida Southern (300) in the nine-team field after Sunday's action at the Lone Palm Golf Club. The top three teams advance to the 2013 NCAA Division II National Championships. No. 3-ranked Lynn (305) is in fourth place, followed by No. 4-ranked Rollins (309). The 301 round ties for the third-lowest round that the Pirates have shot this season.

Individually, junior Kristen Sammarco finished her round off strong, going four under par over the last three holes to finish the day with a two-under-par 70 total, leading the regional individually by one stroke over Nova Southeastern's Linnea Johansson (71) as the only two golfers to break par on the day.

Junior Kiley Mettler fired a three-over-par 75 and is in ninth place individually, while junior Jenna Birch carded a 77 and is tied for 14th individually. Freshman Brendie Rockholt shot a 79 on Sunday and is tied for 28th individually, while sophomore Pamela Mosley rounded out the Pirates' scoring with an 85, tying for 44th place.

Play continues on Monday with a single round of 18 holes beginning with tee times at 8:00 a.m., with the regional wrapping up on Tuesday with a single round of 18 holes.
